Three-Day Residential Training Programme On Companies Act, 2013: Issues and Challenges

February 10-12, 2015

ABOUT IICA

Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs (IICA) has been established by the Union Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA), Government of India, to act as a think-tank and centre of excellence to support the growth of the corporate sector in India through an integrated and multi-disciplinary approach. The state-of-the-art campus of IICA is located at Manesar, Haryana.

IICA offers capacity building and advisory solutions to the Government, Statutory Authorities, Private Sector and other stakeholders through its various Schools, Centres and Foundations. It organises tailored programmes for ministries, departments, companies or other stakeholders that seek to provide training as per their requirement. Apart from specialized training, the Institute continues to play an important role in education and awareness through creation of focused and highly specialized contents/material for public dissemination as well as seminars and workshops on topics that are of current relevance.

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Enforcement of the Companies Act, 2013 commenced in 2013 with an objective to reduce the administrative and regulatory burdens to companies; reduce costs to companies; ensure the companies would move in a progressive manner; have a fair, modern and effective framework of company law which is crucial to economic development. It is a modern legislation, which has a strong and modern regulatory mechanism, which will have a substantial impact on the functioning of the Directors and officers within the effective corporate governance system. The new Act also requires the Board of Directors of the company to discharge their corporate social responsibilities by way of statutory regulation as part of their duties.

The Act has a wide spectrum of modern company law areas ranging from formation of one person company; liberal procedure for mergers and acquisitions; shareholder empowerment/activism; class action suits; directors appointment, removal, specific duties and liabilities; statutory regulatory mechanism for corporate social responsibility; new procedure for related party transactions; new trends in corporate finance; incorporation of statutory duties and responsibilities to independent directors; machinery to curb corporate frauds; new compliances in the area of accounts and audit and new procedure relating to corporate insolvency. It has put more responsibility on the key managerial personnel of the company for implementation of all the relevant laws applicable to the companies and also provides a bigger role for them in key areas like liquidation, audit, valuation etc.

OBJECTIVES OF THE TRAINING

In furtherance of its mandate and objective, in the above backdrop, IICA proposes to educate the stakeholders including academia, professionals, researchers and senior level executives on various aspects of the new Company Law and to prepare the stakeholders to understand the practical implications of the Act through various teaching sessions.
